

Nakeeta N Nembhard, ACB, ALB

Nakeeta Nembhard, President of the JN Toastmasters Club, joined the Jamaica National Building Society in 2013 and became a member of the JN Toastmasters Club shortly thereafter. She completed the Competent Communicator (CC) status in early 2014 and the Advanced Communicator Bronze (ACB) in 2016. She has achieved Competent Leader (CL) and Advanced Leader Bronze (ALB) status and was selected as Toastmaster of the Year for both JNBS and for Division B, District 81 for 2015.

Nakeeta is a Business Development and Research Specialist with the JNBS Business Development and Research Unit. She previously worked at the Jamaica Promotions Corporation (JAMPRO), and was a member of the team charged with designing the agency's strategic plan to achieve its national development objectives.

She holds a BSc, International Relations and Sociology and a MSc, Sociology (Distinction), both from the University of the West Indies. She was awarded the Prime Minister's Youth Award for Excellence in Academics, 2010, for research conducted on the effects of informal settlements and associated coping mechanisms.